

Radio Scouting and Electronics activity

Component bar Instruction card

With this activity, the participant will create figures or jewellery form electronic components from the component bar or which they harvested themselves from old (electronic)equipment.

Harvesting components will allow the participant to explore the wondering world of electronic equipment from everyday life.

Figure examples:

Radio Scouting and Electronics activity

Jewellery examples:

